
| | | | |
|-------------------------------|--|------------------------------|--|
| 1. apprentice | A person who works for another in order to learn a trade | 23. undergraduate | a student in the first four years of college |
| 2. aptitude | Capacity for learning; natural ability | 24. university | an institution of learning of the highest level authorized to confer both undergraduate and graduate degrees |
| 3. associate's degree | a two-year degree awarded by community colleges, career schools, colleges, and universities | 25. vocational school | a school that teaches you the skills you need to do a particular job. |
| 4. bachelor's degree | a university or college degree received after four years of study | | |
| 5. Career Cluster | A group of occupations having related interests. | | |
| 6. colleague | someone you work with, especially in a profession | | |
| 7. community college | a college that people can go to for two years to learn a skill or prepare for university | | |
| 8. doctorate | the highest level of degree given by a university | | |
| 9. employee | someone who is paid to work for a person, organization, or company | | |
| 10. employer | the person/s who pays someone to work for them | | |
| 11. graduate school | a college where you can study for a master's degree | | |
| 12. job | A work role within a specific organization which is paid or unpaid. | | |
| 13. major | the main subject that you study at a college or university | | |
| 14. master's degree | a university degree you get by studying for 2 years after your first degree | | |
| 15. minor | the second main subject that you study at a college or university | | |
| 16. occupation | A wide category of jobs with similar characteristics | | |
| 17. outsourcing | the practice of using workers, supplies, or parts from an outside company instead of producing them yourself | | |
| 18. profession | A job that needs special education or training | | |
| 19. references | a person who knows you well and writes a letter containing information about you, usually to a new employer | | |
| 20. résumé | a written list and description of your education and previous jobs | | |
| 21. standard of living | A standard of living is the minimum necessities thought to be essential | | |
| 22. trade | a particular career, especially one in which you work with your hands | | |
